Great opportunity

What do you look for in an acreage property, quality/usable land, established facilities and if you're lucky fantastic views. Well this property has it all and if horses are your thing, the facilities provided are second to none.

From the moment you enter the acreage you are aware of how peaceful and tranquil the setting is, with landscape gardens, gravel driveways and a beautiful/large single level home.

Space and quality are the words used to describe this home making it a perfect home for the large family and those who love to entertain with an extensive covered wooden deck overlooking the property and valley, providing uninterrupted views of the Blue Mountains and the Hills district.

The home itself has multiple living areas, gourmet kitchen with butler's pantry, ironbark timber floors and a grandeur rarely seen. Add to this separate accommodation with its own entry making it perfect for in-laws, extended families or additional income.
